

Sugarberry CCS Hub Welcomes Local Community Liaison and Opens Local Office in Hopkins County

As we continue the development of the Sugarberry CCS Hub in Northeast Texas and gaining momentum in the region, we are pleased to share some exciting updates.

First, we have hired Hopkins County resident, Brad Johnson, as a Community Liaison for our Sugarberry CCS project. Brad will work to expand our relationships with stakeholders in the region and support the land acquisition team.

While much of the community knows Brad and his family, we wanted to share a little about his impressive professional background. Brad served as District Liaison to Jill Dutton, State Representative, District 2. He has also held various positions on both State and Hopkins County Boards. Before his recent retirement, Brad was the General Manager of the Northeast Texas Farmers Co-op for 22 years. In his free time, Brad enjoys spending time with his three daughters, their husbands, and his six grandchildren, who are spread across Sugar Land, Texarkana, and Sulphur Springs.

We are confident that Brad will make significant contributions to our project's success. We encourage you to connect with him and extend a warm welcome to our team. Brad can be reached at:

Email: community@sugarberryccs.com

Phone: (903) 243-1371

Second, we are proud to announce the opening of our local office in Hopkins County to serve landowners and stakeholders in the region. Brad will work out of the new office space and be available to navigate any questions or concerns the community might have about the Sugarberry CCS project.

The office is located at:

115 Gilmer Street

Sulphur Springs, TX 75482

Wednesdays & Thursdays 8:00 A.M. – 12:00 P.M.

Or by appointment

We are eager to welcome you and provide insights into the project's objectives, progress, and opportunities for community involvement. Together, we can make a meaningful impact in addressing environmental concerns for emitters, while advancing sustainable solutions within the Northeast Texas region. We look forward to seeing you at our new office soon.

SUGARBERRY CCS HUB